

Sprucelands Equestrian Center and Summer Camp ~ Est. 1935

I _____, do on this date, agree with and fully understand the following conditions. I realize that there is a risk involved when horseback riding; taking horseback riding lessons; doing trail rides; caring for horses; or being on the premises where horses are kept, and therefore, I must adhere to the rules and regulations, or any discipline set forth by the instructor(s) or hereafter known as the management, knowing that these rules and regulations are for my own good and protection. I realize that I could suffer bodily harm at any time.

Therefore, I do hereby release the management, assistants, instructor(s), fellow boarders, or fellow students, connected with learning, practicing, competing, performing horse care, without qualification, agreeing to hold them harmless for any and all damage that I or my personal guests at these premises, or my horse(s)' may suffer as a result of this boarding and/or training agreement, or as a result of any harm or injury that may come to my horse(s).

I shall be responsible for my own, as well as my own horse(s)' safety at all times while on these premises. I will make no claims of any kind for damages for myself, my heirs, my personal representatives, or assigns. This also covers any loss to clothing or any equipment brought to these premises.

Being of sound mind, I do hereby affirm my signature below in the presence of a witness. I also state that I am in good health. If under 21 years, I will have a parent or guardian affix their signature also, with their full understanding that they are taking the responsibility for me to the full conditions written above.
